

TARIFF BILL OUT
BY NEXT TUESDAYFINANCE COMMITTEE ARE AT WORK TO-DAY.

Went into the Session This Morning And Have Been Busy All Day Preparing the Measure For the Consideration of the Upper House Next Week.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The finance committee went to work on the tariff bill this morning and continued during the day, getting ready to report on Tuesday morning. If the government expenses for the next fiscal year do not exceed the amount estimated by Secretary Carlisle for the present year there will be, in the event of the tariff bill passing in its present shape, a surplus at the end of the next fiscal year of about $57,000,000. The bill as it came from the house threatened a deficit; it now promises a surplus. Three senate amendments promise an increase of $58,000,000 over the house bill. These three are: Sugar, $40,000,000; whisky, $10,000,000; cigars, $8,000,000; total, $58,000,000.

The internal revenue schedules (including sugar) promise an increase from those sources over the existing law of $98,000,000, of which the income tax is expected to provide $30,000,000 and whisky $20,000,000, $10,000,000 from whisky having been arranged for by the house.

PEPPER AFTER SENATORS.

Resolution Introduced by Him in Reference to Speculation.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Pepper yesterday introduced in the senate a resolution to investigate the rumors regarding sugar speculation by senators. It went over until to-morrow.

Senator Pepper's resolution provides for a committee to examine the charges in various newspapers that certain senators had utilized knowledge gained officially for dealing in sugar stocks and had made large gains. Mr. Pepper stated that he had no personal knowledge of the charges, and at his request the resolution was tabled temporarily.

Then came up the Bland seigniorage bill as unfinished business. Mr. Allison asked that the bill go over until Wednesday at 3 o'clock. Mr. Manderson inquired if amendments could be offered. Mr. Harris replied that he did not think he would consent to this. Considerable discussion followed, and finally Mr. Harris suggested that Wednesday a vote be taken on Mr. Allison's motion to reconsider, and if that failed Mr. Manderson might move to recommit to the finance committee, the final vote to be taken Thursday at 2 o'clock. This was agreed to and the debate on the bill was then resumed. The discussion was participated in by Senators Vilas (Wis.), Stewart (Nev.) and Aldrich (N. J.), and at its close Senator Harris (Tenn.) made the following explanation: "I have represented on this floor my own personal and individual views. I have no information from the head of the administration, or any member of the administration, fully as to what they wish or do not wish in regard to it. I am presenting my own individual views and shall continue to represent them until the end of the contest."

After an executive session the senate adjourned until Monday.

WILL ENFORCE MONROE DOCTRINE.

Cabinet Discusses the Landing of British Troops in Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Official corroboration of the report that Great Britain had landed troops on the Mosquito coast has been received at the state department. Yesterday the cabinet reviewed the matter in detail. What conclusion will be reached can not, at present, be told. The given motive for landing the British troops is not believed to be the real one. It is the opinion of Secretary Gresham that the true design of the British is to obtain a foothold near to the mouth of the Nicaragua canal with the view to establishing a British fort there so as to be ready to snatch any advantage which may offer itself. It is the general opinion here that the administration will take very decided steps to enforce the Monroe doctrine.

TITLES ARE IN DOUBT.

Thousands of Acres on the Upper Peninsula Involved.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Commissioner Lamoreux of the general land office, after examining into the question of approvals of land grants in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to the Portage Lake and Lake Superior Ship Canal company, has decided that nearly 60,000 acres of land were erroneously approved to that company in 1868. These lands were listed as "mineral" prior to the act of making the grant to the company. As the granting act expressly excluded from its terms lands which had formerly been classed as "mineral" Commissioner Lamoreux holds that the approval was without authority of law. He recommends to Secretary Smith that suit be instituted to set aside the title of the company.

Vote on Bland Bill Thursday.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The senate will take its final vote on the Bland bill on Thursday next at 2 o'clock. On Wednesday the vote on Senator Allison's motion to reconsider failed.

son's motion to reconsider will be taken up and if it fail to carry a vote will be taken on a motion by Senator Manderson to commit the bill to the finance committee. To this the senate has unanimously agreed.

Jenkins Investigating Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Congressman Charles J. Boatner of Louisiana, William A. Stone of Pennsylvania and William L. Terry of Arkansas, have been appointed by the house judiciary committee to investigate Judge Jenkins' Northern Pacific decision. Should the committee find that Judge Jenkins has the law on his side, they will probably recommend a change in the law. Should he be found to have been merely guilty of an error of judgment—and such is the pretty general belief—efforts to set the decision aside will be made. It should be found a recommendation for his impeachment will be made.

Another Western Canal Proposed.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The most important project submitted at yesterday's meeting of the river and harbor committee was a new one urged by Representative Keifer of Minnesota for a survey of a canal route connecting Lake Superior with the Mississippi river. It is proposed by this plan to utilize the small streams at the source of the Mississippi as connecting links in a canal joining the Gulf of St. Lawrence with the Mississippi. It is urged that it could be utilized to store the upper waters of the Mississippi and prevent the overflows which are so disastrous to the Lower Mississippi.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—In the house yesterday, after transacting some business of minor importance, the house went into committee of the whole for further consideration of the District of Columbia bill. At 3 o'clock the debate closed and voting took place on various amendments. Without completing the consideration of the bill the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to private pension bills.

The night session was devoted to the passage of individual pensions, and at 10:25 the house adjourned.

Vote-Forcing a Failure.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Some of the members of the house who were interested in the vote-forcing caucus Tuesday night are very much chagrined at the collapse of the venture. Although 126 representatives signed the call the highest number of those present did not at any time exceed fifty-five. This is likely to be the end of efforts in this direction.

No Dismissals in the Pension Office.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The periodical rumor of extensive dismissals to be made in the pension office is going the rounds of the bureau. It is reported that 500 employees will be removed on or before the beginning of the fiscal year. The story is denied at the pension office.

Ruth Has a New Governess.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Miss Jennie Lander of Mansfield, Ohio, has been installed in the white house as governess of Ruth Cleveland. She is about 25 years of age and is said to be a good linguist.

STRIKE LEADS TO MURDER.

Lehigh Valley Train Dispatcher Nearly Killed for Accepting a Job.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 10.—Train dispatcher W. J. Hepburn, who came from New York and accepted a position in the railroad office here during the late strike on the Lehigh Valley road, was almost murdered last night by three men, who attacked him on a bridge on his way home. Hepburn is in a precarious condition. The Lehigh Valley's detectives have taken hold of the case, and are confident of running to earth the would-be assassins.

In the Interest of Silver.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Allison regards the appointment by Germany of a commission to investigate the silver question as an instance of great significance, particularly because the commission, with the exception of one or, at the most, two of its members, is composed of bimetalists. The creation of the commission, the senator says, is due to the rapid decline in silver. He looks to see the example of Germany followed by other governments of Europe.

Black Diphtheria in Ohio.

ALLIANCE, Ohio, March 10.—Black diphtheria, which has been raging at Hanoverton, fifteen miles east of here, for the last three weeks, is rapidly spreading to the surrounding villages and the greatest consternation prevails. Public schools in New Garden, Adair, Kensington, neighboring villages and the country schools in seven different townships have been closed on account of the prevalence of the malady.

Want a British Silver Dollar.

LONDON, March 10.—A dispatch to the Times from Singapore says that in consequence of the scarcity of Mexican dollars there is urgent local demand for the coinage of a British dollar. The banks and merchants are almost unanimously in favor of the proposal.

Flood in Pennsylvania.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 10.—The Susquehanna river has overflowed its west bank. The low lands for many miles are under water and the electric railway has been compelled to abandon traffic over its new line to Kingston.

THE POSTER CASE
DRAGGED TO-DAY.

NOTHING NEW OR SENSATIONAL HAS DEVELOPED.

G. W. Welsh Did Not Know That He Signed Banker Woodard's Bond as Surety—Deposition of Governor Peck Read This Morning and Mr. Woodard's Story Told.

MADISON, March 10.—[Special]—The poster case was devoid of sensation today. The reading of Governor Peck's deposition was finished this morning and G. W. Welsh, whose signature appears on the Woodard bank bond was then put on the stand. Mr. Welsh never knew that he signed the bond. Mr. Olin then offered the deposition of W. C. Donovan ex-managing editor of The Times, but it was not received as the witness was present but Mr. Olin did not call him. The rest of the morning was spent in the reading of the deposition of Banker Woodard of Clinton.

Attorney Hall made an ingenious plea for his client, Colonel C. L. Clark. Hall said Colonel Clark delivered everything to plaintiffs which he had agreed to. They got the contract and they got The Times' plant. So far as the claim that Clark knew the claim was invalid was concerned the validity of the contract had never been tested and nobody knew yet whether it is valid or not.

As a part of the conspiracy, Hall continued, plaintiffs claim that Clark agreed to pay the $20,000 back provided the whole matter was kept quiet. Clark had paid back $5,000, and plaintiffs were that much better off than they could demand to be made, because Mr. Clark had never admitted that he was legally bound to pay a cent to plaintiffs. They knew as well or better than Clark what they were buying, and it was the kind of transaction where the buyer should beware. It was with the plaintiffs the old story of the dog crossing the stream who saw the shadow of the bone and in his greed for more lost all.

EFFORTS TO BRIBE JURORS.

Evidence Taken at Lima in the Case Against Farrot.

LIMA, Ohio, March 10.—No recent affair in this part of the state has caused so great a sensation as has the developments in the expose of the attempt to bribe members of the grand jury in the case of the indictment of ex-Cashier Frank L. Langan of the defunct Lima National bank on the charge of embezzlement. Ex-Sheriff M. P. Hoagland is in jail awaiting sentence for tampering with the same jury and R. C. Farrot and H. E. Hall of Cincinnati were arraigned yesterday on the charge of contempt of court in attempting to bribe the jury into returning a verdict against Langan. Arguments were made without Farrot being put on the stand by the defense to explain the meaning of his offers to do the right thing by Mr. Butler. Final decision of the matter was postponed until a week from to-day. In the meantime ex-Sheriff Hoagland languishes in jail and Hall's trial will be had to-day.

HILLSIDE STILL SLIPPING.

Danger That a Body of Earth Will Carry Houses to the River.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 10.—The big landslide on the south side of Price Hill is still slowly moving. The crevice is widened to thirty feet and fears are felt that the avalanche will let go and crash into the Ohio river. Several fine dwellings are in the line of danger and most of these have been vacated. The hill at that point is at an angle of forty-five degrees. The slide has moved over five feet in the last ten hours. The entire forest of trees that covered the hillside is slipping down in the valley, and this morning they leaned over in a most threatening manner. The slide was undoubtedly caused by the making of Elberon avenue, which winds around the hill in an immense curve. The upper side of the road was cut out of the hill. There was no piling or supports of any kind below this immense quantity of earth. The avenue, which cost the county $155,000, is practically ruined.

DEVELOPMENTS AT TROY, N. Y.

It Is Now Said the Riot Was Due to A. P. A. Influences.

TROY, N. Y., March 10.—It is alleged here that the fracas resulting in the death of Robert Ross was the outcome of an A. P. A. feud between him and "Bat" Shea, who is a Catholic, and Boland, who was excommunicated from the Catholic church and who only lately became a republican and a member of the A. P. A. It is said that in the caucus a few weeks ago Ross had violent words with other members of his party over the question of endorsing Whelan, who is also a Catholic, and that in a fracas that occurred he was hurt. The committee of safety will meet to-night to outline its course of action.

Murdered by a Wife-Beater.

OKLAHOMA, O. T., March 10.—John Mosier has been shot and killed twelve miles south of this city by Jake Collins. They had been to Norman and became intoxicated. When they reached home Collins abused and beat his wife and when Mosier took her part he turned on him and shot him, killing him instantly. Collins was arrested and is in jail at Norman.

TROUBLE BREWING
AT HONOLULU.ENGLISH AND CANADIANS PLAN
A REVOLUTION.

The Large Numbers of Them Who Went to Hawaii in the Past Two Months Are Now Charged with Seeking to Overthrow the Government.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—[Special]—The steamer Australia from Honolulu this morning brings the tidings that the government is much disturbed and that a large number of Englishmen and Canadians who went there in the last two months are in a plot to overthrow the government.

SLAIN BY TRIBESMEN.

British Force of Thirty Men Massacred in Assam.

CALCUTTA, March 10.—A dispatch received here from Gowhaty, the chief town of Assam, announces a still more serious disaster for the British arms. A detached party, composed of thirty rifles and four British officers, had been operating as an escort to a train on its way to Bordax with provisions and ammunition for the garrison at that town. The detachment encountered no resistance until it was far from its base of operations, and then the tribesmen began to gather ahead of it and on its flanks, keeping up a galling fire, which eventually brought the detachment to a standstill. For two days the little band kept up a continuous fight day and night with the tribesmen, but eventually the little force of thirty soldiers surrounded by thousands of tribesmen, were killed. An expedition has been sent to punish the tribesmen.

SETTLERS MUST GET OUT.

Ashland Land Contest Decided in Favor of the Lumber Company.

ASHLAND, Wis., March 10.—The well-known land contest case of the Keystone Lumber company against forty settlers has been decided in favor of the former, the decision in the case being received yesterday from Washington. When the contest first came up the local office decided in favor of the settlers as did also Commissioner Lamoureux of the general department. The company appealed and Secretary Hoke Smith, who made the decision received to-day, decides that the settlers have no right on the land.

LYNCHERS AFTER HIM.

Tennessee Farmer Pursued for Assaulting Wife, Child and Sister-in-Law.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 10.—George A. Smith, a farmer about 35 years of age, living near Celina, went home drunk Wednesday night and murdered his youngest child, cut his wife's throat and crushed her head. He went to the house of his sister-in-law, and finding her sick in bed, grasped her by the hair, dragged her to the floor, and stamped upon her. Smith has fled. He will very likely be lynched if captured.

Coughlin Will Leave Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Daniel Coughlin, his father and Attorney Donahoe held a conference late yesterday afternoon. After talking together for an hour it was determined that the best thing for "Dan" to do was to leave the city as soon as was found convenient. It was decided that he should leave for Hancock, Mich., his old home. No action will be taken by the state's attorney for the present on the charge of jury bribing. The unanimity of the verdict removed suspicion from the jurors and the charge will not be considered. Judge Tuthill has left the matter in the hands of the state's attorney.

Duffy Held for Shooting at Hale.

DALLAS, Texas, March 10.—Tom Duffy, who shot four times at A. P. A. Lecturer Hale Thursday night, was arrested yesterday and arraigned before Judge Kelton on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. Duffy was released on a bond of $750, but as soon as his bondsmen found that he was under indictment of the grand jury for receiving stolen money and was then out on bail they surrendered him.

Chinaman Granted a Divorce.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A divorce was granted yesterday in Judge McAdam's court to Yuet Lee, a Chinese gambler of Mott street. The couple were married in 1891. Mrs. Lee being an American woman and 16 years of age at the time. It was the first decree of divorce granted to a Chinaman by the courts of this city.

Gift of $500,000 from P. D. Armour.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 10.—It is learned that Philip D. Armour will give $500,000 to the San Francisco public schools for the establishment of a manual training school for boys. The only condition Mr. Armour makes is that the school shall be carried on under the school department and shall be open to any one eligible to the public schools.

Vice President Goes to Asheville.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 10.—Vice President and Mrs. Stevenson arrived here yesterday afternoon and will remain at the Battery Park hotel for a week seeking rest.

Louis Kossuth Is Dying.

TURIN, March 10.—Louis Kossuth has suffered a relapse, and his physicians say that he will probably not survive the night.

DUNN SAYS BUSINESS INCREASES

Greater Demand But Lower Prices—Activity Shown in Textile Branches.

NEW YORK, March 10.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Evidences of present improvement in business multiply, but confidence in future improvement does not seem to increase. There is more business and a larger production by industries, for the season has arrived when greater activity is necessary if dealers' stock are to be replenished and those who cannot make calculations beyond a few months are the more anxious to crowd as much trade as they safely can into those months.

In some branches of distribution, however, there are indications of a diminishing demand for goods and the evident preference for medium and low-priced articles, with the known reduction in wages and family expenditures, leads many to feel somewhat less confident that business will soon recover its former volume. Undertakings reaching beyond a short time are not made with greater freedom and in spite of a larger present demand prices of manufactured goods tend downward.

In textile manufactures and dry goods there are increased activity and replenishment of stocks, as is natural at this season. But the demand thus far falls much short of expectations and its character indicates great economy in consumption. In woollens also manufacturers are increasing production mainly in a tentative way, or on orders little more than sufficient to test the market. In the last five weeks the decrease has been only 12 per cent, which is a marked improvement, in part due to the fact that the mills having any orders are buying at once what wool they expect to need for months to come.

Breadstuffs and oils have been stronger, provisions weaker, and cotton hesitates. Wheat advanced half a cent, western receipts being only 2,116,087 bushels, against 3,359,100 last year, and Atlantic exports 1,192,170, against 775,193 last year. Corn receipts at the west were 3,815,155, against 2,140,981 last year, but the price rose nearly a cent. Lard and hogs both declined, nevertheless Sales of cotton were larger at first with some decline, which was afterwards recovered.

Failures are growing less important and somewhat fewer also. For the week ending March 8 the liabilities thus far reported were only $2,937,832, and for four weeks of February $14,886,091, of which $6,732,615 were of manufacturing and $7,897,137 of trading concerns. The number of failures during the last week have been 248 in the United States, against 193 last year, and 60 in Canada, against 32 last year.

SILVER HAIR ON TRIAL.

Bad Day for the Defense in Pollard-Breckinridge Case.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—During the progress of the Pollard-Breckinridge case yesterday it was noted that the plaintiff was inclined to be restless and nervous and at one time she interrupted the progress of examination by elucubrations which called forth a vehement protest from her counsel and companions. Congressman Breckinridge was an attentive listener and when ex-Representative Phil Thompson was conducting cross-examinations he was frequently prompted by the silver-haired defendant.

Mrs. Julia C. Blackburn, widow of Gov. Luke Blackburn of Kentucky, was the first witness called. She testified that Good Friday, 1893, in the Portland flats in Washington, Col. Breckinridge and Miss Pollard had called on her and had persisted in sending for her three times when she had pleaded weariness. She was induced to receive them. Mrs. Blackburn testified that on several occasions Col. Breckinridge had told her it was his intention to make Miss Pollard his wife and in that way had induced her to chaperon the plaintiff. Mrs. Blackburn's evidence was very positive and told strongly against the defendant.

Attorney Phil Thompson announced that the defendant's opening statement would be reserved until the conclusion of the plaintiff's testimony.

The examination of witnesses was brief, and at its conclusion, 3 o'clock having arrived, the court adjourned. The case will be resumed Monday.

Pope May Remove Ban of the Church.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 10.—Cardinal Gibbons is in daily expectation of a decision from Rome in regard to the removal of the ban of the church from the orders of Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias, which were submitted to the pope by the last plenary council. It is generally expected in Catholic circles that the decision will grant permission to communicants of the church conditionally; that is, each prospective member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias who belongs to the Catholic church will first be required to receive the sanction of the pastor of his particular parish.

Teaching Nuns Not to Withdraw.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 10.—A sensational story is current in connection with the controversy over the election of nuns as teachers in the public schools. It was said that a secret conference of the order of the Sisters of Charity is to be held at the mother house, Seton Hill, Greensburg. The object is to consider a proposition to withdraw from the schools. The nuns deny the story and say they will continue to teach unless the courts compel them to stop.

TWO MEN BLOWN UP
BY A STEAM BOILER.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT PITTSBURG THIS MORNING.

Steam Generator in the Fahey Machine Shop Exploded, and When the Steam and Dust Cleared Away One Victim Was Dead and Another Lay Senseless.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 10.—[Special]—Two men were blown into the air this morning and one is dead while the other is fatally injured. The boiler in Fahey's machine shop exploded, filling the building with steam and dust. The men were found on the floor.

FLAG FIRED ON BY REBELS.

British Insulted at Rio Janeiro—Seamen Impressed Into the Service.

LONDON, March 10.—A special from Rio Janeiro says: As the tug Isabel, flying the British flag, was steaming yesterday in the outer harbor she was fired upon by the insurgent steamer Victoria, the shot passing through the Isabel's flag. The Isabel stopped immediately and the Victoria, by signal, compelled her to come alongside, which she did. The Victoria took off one of the crew of the Isabel, pressing him into the insurgent service and ordering the tug away. The matter was at once reported to the British authorities, but as yet they have taken no action whatever. The English people here are highly indignant, but are helpless, for all their warships are outside. The tug-owners have cabled their grievance to England, and the German residents have wired to Montevideo to have their squadron returned to protect them.

Bomb Intended for Deputies.

ROME, March 10.—One of the men wounded on the Piazza di Monte Citorio by the explosion Thursday evening of the bomb in front of the chamber of deputies died yesterday. The police believe the explosion was the work of anarchists who had been roused to action by the fact that deputies yesterday devoted considerable time to discussing the question of prosecuting the chief of the great socialist labor society, Deputy Felice Giuffrida of Catania, who is said to have had a great deal to do with the recent agitation in Sicily.

Ministers to Resign.

THE HAGUE, March 10.—The Netherlands ministry is expected to resign, as the chamber has adopted an amendment to the principal clause of the government reform bill. In consequence of the adoption of this amendment Premier Dr. G. Van Tienhoven has withdrawn the bill and is conferring with the ministry.

Rosebery to State His Program.

LONDON, March 10.—Lord Rosebery, the new Premier, will, March 17, make an address at Edinburgh to delegates from the liberal associations of all parts of Scotland. Upon this occasion Lord Rosebery is expected to make an important pronouncement of the policy which the new ministry intends to adopt.

Three Priests Involved.

PARIS, March 10.—Three priests, letters from whom were found in the house of the anarchist, Tournadre, have been summoned to appear before a magistrate. Other letters were found among the effects of Tournadre that will require explanation in court on the part of the writers.

Gladstone Much Better.

LONDON, March 10.—The health of Mr. Gladstone has greatly improved and he is now pronounced to be on the high road to complete recovery.

MR. WILSON VERY WEAK.

His Son Reports that the Congressman Is Free from Fever.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Representative Breckinridge of Arkansas has received the following telegram from the son of Representative Wilson concerning the latter's condition:

"GUADALAJARA, Mexico, March 9.—Fever gone; in bed; very weak and much emaciated. W. H. Wilson."

The telegram is not regarded by Mr. Breckinridge as encouraging, as the reference to Mr. Wilson's weakness and emaciation dispels rose-colored reports received of late. Mr. Wilson's son left for Mexico as soon as the first alarming reports of last week were received and his telegram was sent soon after reaching his father's sick-bed.

Iowa Temperance Legislation.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 10.—In the senate yesterday the opponents of the Carpenter local option bill gained a point in securing the adoption of an amendment providing that it should not permit the sale of spirituous liquors. A motion for consideration will be voted upon to-day. If the amendment is allowed to remain it will practically defeat the bill. Senator Finn says he thinks the amendment will be carried and then they would pass another amendment to knock out the malt and vinous liquor provisions and only permit ginger ale and buttermilk to be sold.

Failed to Find Colgate.

MOSCOW, Idaho, March 10.—The second party which went into the Bitter Root mountains to find Colgate, the cook of the Carlin party, who was deserted on the Clearwater, has returned without finding any trace of him.

ARC STREET LIGHTS ARE NOT PERFECT.

MILWAUKEE IS DISSATISFIED WITH THE SYSTEM IN USE.

Cost Has Increased Without Adequate Results—Lights on Corners Not Enough, as the Middle of Blocks Are Dark—Sentinel Condemns the Present Plan Editorially.

EDITOR GAZETTE: The problem of whether or not Janesville is well and sufficiently lighted and whether changes in the system should be made is a subject of great importance to the tax payers. The Recorder has printed some facts in an effort to get the matter before the people and in this idea I am with them. Their article was confined to the answers of Wisconsin mayors, and along that line Mayor Koch of Milwaukee, was asked the Recorder says, in a circular letter which was sent to the various mayors, how long electric lights had been used and whether or not they were satisfactory considering the cost and illumination, his answer was that they "had used electric lights about eight years and that it was more satisfactory than oil or gas."

Between the statement of Mayor Koch and The Sentinel there seems to be a wide difference but perhaps that is due to the fact that the mayor figured too much on the cost in his answer, because it is the cost that impels The Sentinel to denounce the present system of lighting in Milwaukee in a two column article and a three-quarter column editorial while the News publishes a statement that a saving in the cost of lighting, large enough to build four or five additional school buildings might be made. The Sentinel's editorial discusses "the increase in the cost of lighting the city since the introduction of electricity on the streets in 1888. The facts that are presented do not take into consideration the question whether the city is better lighted now than it was under the all-gas system. Doubtless it is, at least in the down town wards. But it is a striking fact that, with the large addition of electric arc lights in some of the old wards, the boundaries of which have not been materially changed during the past six years, there is no greater displacement of gas lights, and no greater economy from the use of the arc lights."

Continuing the Sentinel makes this plain statement: "That the electric lights are expensive, considering the distribution of light they give, must be apparent from an examination of the matter. There is no doubt about the excellence of the light afforded at street intersections where the arc lights are located," and goes on and says that "On a dark night it is almost impossible to decipher the number of a house in the middle of a block. There is a profusion of glaring light at the street intersections, where the arc lights are suspended, about 100 or 150 feet away dense darkness prevails." Along the line the editorial continues that "it is estimated that for considerable less than is now entailed the arc lights might be abandoned altogether, and more than 6,000 gas lights established, which, if they were properly located, would light the city to the brilliancy of day. Estimating the arc lights at 1,200 candle-power each it is plain that the light afforded at each street intersection, where no one such light is used, is vastly greater than would be given by two or even four gas lights placed at such points. But the trouble seems to be that the corner arc lights are not considered sufficient to illuminate the space between the street intersections on the blocks, and gas lamps are interspersed between the arc lights. The result is that while the street corners are brilliantly illuminated the city is paying an enormous and constantly increasing cost for street lighting."

Cost Will Keep Growing. The Sentinel further suggests: "If the city is to go on adopting electric lights without displacing the other forms of lighting even in the old districts, where the field for light remained unchanged, it is perfectly apparent that the cost for city lighting will surely grow much farther beyond reason than it now seems to be."

An instance is quoted in the article in question when "the aldermen ordered up a string of arc lights on Grand avenue, from Thirteenth to Thirty-fifth street, and on Wells street for the same distance. The gas lights on the streets between Grand avenue and Wells street were discontinued, and as a result the indignation of some of the residents and property owners on those streets were aroused. The arc lights at the corners, they declared, were of no benefit to them, and they wanted lights in the middle of the blocks. The same complaint comes from other parts of the city. Electric lights at the street corners it seems, are not satisfactory."

Figures are also quoted that "show that the arc light is an expensive luxury," and the statement is made that "in the first ward sixty-three arc lights have displaced ninety gas lamps, one arc light having been substituted for one and three-sevenths gas lamps."

"The cost of lighting the streets in the First ward has been more than doubled, although the contract price of gas has been reduced since 1888 from $24.17 a year per lamp to $22, and of electric light from $150 to $110. In the Third ward 'forty-seven arc lights have supplanted only fifty-seven gas lamps, one arc light displacing only 1.31 gas lamps. In the Fourth ward 'the cost has nearly doubled, but the streets are not better lighted in proportion. The same disproportionate changes are shown in all the other wards. The change from gas to electric lighting has in every case proved uneconomical, both in cost and in the distribution of light."

GETTING HIS WINTER "SOOT."

Gas Has Held Its Own

"The census fails to show to what extent electricity has supplanted gas in lighting the streets in other cities. The experience in Milwaukee has shown that gas has managed to maintain itself notwithstanding the competition of electric lighting. Arc lights were first introduced in Milwaukee in 1888. At that time it was claimed the gas lamps would in a few years disappear entirely, but these predictions have not been realized. Both gas and electric lighting are being used at present at an enormously increased cost, and no one will claim that the city is perfectly lighted. It is doubtful whether one arc light at a distance of 803 feet is as good as one gas lamp at a distance of 160 feet."

So much for Milwaukee and it should be borne in mind that the Sentinel's attack was simply that of the paper against a waste of public money for which adequate results were not received. That the light should be so vigorously condemned in both the news and editorial columns is a strong point against electric lights where they are not placed in the middle of blocks or at street corners. Couple with this assertion from Milwaukee the statements clipped from the Recorder:

What the Mayors Say.

"Mayor A. F. Fisher of Baraboo, replying will say that our city is lighted with gas at present, my opinion is that the electric arc light system for street purposes. It may be more expensive, but as a rule it is a satisfactory light."

"Mayor James H. Elmore, of Green Bay: We have used electric lights about ten years. They are more satisfactory than gas or oil, but we have not used enough."

"Mayor John J. Wood, Jr. of Berlin: We have used electric lights on our streets since the spring 1891. They are more satisfactory than the oil lamps therefore used. We have no gas."

"Mayor Henry Kalsched of Marshfield: We have used electric lights about ten years. The city never used gas or oil, but should thank electric light was the light."

"Mayor Conrad Eysberg of Lake Mills: We have used electric light for one year. We are well satisfied with the lights. They are far ahead of the oil lamps."

Then add this one:

Why Monroe Is Happy.

"Mayor J. L. Hochm, Monroe: We have electric lights since the summer of 1888. Previous to that time we had twelve or fifteen oil lamps. That was cheaper. We now have fifty arc lamps."

The suggestion might be made that the taxpayer read in the Progressive Age of March 1 a journal devoted to the interests of gas electricity and water, the statement that Minneapolis will add 450 new gas lamps to the 105 now in use. Consider the Sentinel's statements that electric lights has been an "expensive luxury;" that it has not displaced gas lamps in proportion to the cost; that gas has held its own; that electric lights must be put in the middle of blocks as well as at corners to be satisfactory, that at Monroe the mayor can honestly say that fifty arc lights are more satisfactory than twelve or fifteen oil lamps and decide whether Janesville wants to light the city on the same basis; by putting on one hundred arc lights and still use both gas and oil in addition.

H. MERRILL.

A Blackbird With Diamond Eyes.

Agnes Herndon shows the attributes of a true artist in the first act of her great play "A Woman's Revenge; or, La Belle Marie," by utterly throwing aside every finery and appearing as a simple, loving country girl with blonde hair, dressed in a common calico dress, gingham apron, sun bonnet and coarse shoes and stockings. But when she assumes the disguise of the vengeful iren, "La Belle Marie," seeking only vengeance for her wrongs, the audience at her entrance is held spellbound by her magnificent costume, consisting of gorgeous red and gold gown, her queenly head surmounted with a Mephisto hat to match on which is perched a blackbird whose eyes glisten like diamonds. This unique and novel effect is produced by means of a small electric storage battery deftly concealed at the back of the costume and has a very pretty effect. In the third act the fair actress appears in a very beautiful white satin toilet, embroidered with pearl and gold bands, made by Worth, on which is worn the celebrated "Felix" long opera cloak, of white and canary cut velvet, trimmed with ostrich tips, making one of the most elegant and most costly toilets ever worn upon any stage. In act four Miss Herndon appears a very dream of loveliness, wearing a pale pink crepe Grecian robe, with silver ornaments; and in the fifth and last act the actress appears in a very beautiful crimson robe completely draping her magnificent figure, causing the ladies present to rave over her many elegant changes.

Miss Herndon's appearance Tuesday evening March 20, will be one of the notable amusement events of our season.

NEWS OF MILTON JUNCTION.

Revival Meetings Are Ended—Camp Fire Much Enjoyed—Other Items.

MILTON JUNCTION, March 9.—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crapser and Miss Minnie Chaffar of Waupun, visited their cousin, Mrs. C. K. Butts, last week. Henry Babcock is quite sick with heart difficulty. The evening meetings at the M. E. church closed last Friday evening. Mrs. S. A. Hinkley and daughter Olive and son Harry returned from their southern visit last Tuesday night. The I. O. G. F. lodge at this place held a social last Tuesday evening. There were visiting members of the order from White water and Fort Atkinson. All had a good time. The members of the I. O. G. ## NONE BUT GOOD MEN ON THESE TICKETS.

THE JANESVILLE REPUBLICANS HAVE GOOD LISTS IN VIEW.

Some of the Ward Combinations—

James Fathers and Michael Murphy for City Treasurer—M. H. Curtis, George Hanthorn, James Croft, and John Brown for Street Commissioner.

Republican caucuses will not occur until next Wednesday evening but there are some very strong combinations named and the indications point to the fact that the republicans all over the city are a unit on one point, that of placing in the field the strongest possible candidates. Perfect harmony prevails, the party being united and determined, throwing aside all personal prejudices. This point kept in the foreground it seems certain that victory is assured long in advance of the election. The Gazette reporters have taken some pains to gather at this early day some of the combinations that are being urged for the caucus nominations in all the wards, and so far as known the following is the result:

First Ward.

Ticket No. 1—Alderman, H. G. Arnold; Supervisor, D. P. Smith.

Ticket No. 2—Alderman, Henry C. Stearns; Supervisor, D. P. Smith.

Ticket No. 3—Alderman, S. B. Hedges, (balance of ticket same.)

Ticket No. 4—Alderman, E. T. Fish, (balance of ticket same.)

Second Ward.

Ticket No. 1—Alderman, C. H. Kuck; supervisor, W. T. Vankirk; School commissioner, Fred L. Clemons; Constable, A. K. Cutts.

Ticket No. 2—Alderman, Orion Sutherland; Supervisor, W. T. Vankirk; School Commissioner, Fred L. Clemons; Constable, A. K. Cutts.

Third Ward.

Ticket No. 1—Alderman, F. S. Winslow; Supervisor, Fenner Kimball; Constable, Wallace Cochrane.

Ticket No. 2—Alderman, Alex Graham; Supervisor, Fenner Kimball; Constable, Wallace Cochrane.

Ticket No. 3—Alderman, J. A. Hoskins; Supervisor, Fenner Kimball; Constable, Wallace Cochrane.

Ticket No. 4—Alderman, A. C. Munger; Supervisor, Fenner Kimball; Constable, Wallace Cochrane.

Ticket No. 5—Alderman, C. C. Bennett; Supervisor, Fenner Kimball; Constable, Wallace Cochrane.

Fourth Ward.

Ticket No. 1—Alderman, Dr. J. P. Pember; Supervisor, A. H. Sheldon; School Commissioner, A. G. Anderson; Constable.

Ticket No. 2—Alderman, J. B. Green; Supervisor, Fred A. Vankirk; School Commissioner, A. G. Anderson.

Ticket No. 3—Alderman, Fred A. Vankirk; Supervisor, A. H. Sheldon; School Commissioner, A. G. Anderson.

Ticket No. 4—Alderman, W. E. Spicer, Supervisor, A. H. Sheldon; School Commissioner, A. G. Anderson.

Fifth Ward.

So far the republicans have not concentrated upon any candidate. While there are many who would make faithful representatives, the great democratic majority and the bulldozing tactics at the polls make it discouraging for any republican to make the canvass for a ward office.

The combinations mentioned above include only those who are most talked of in the various wards by their friends. It is not known that all are candidates or are willing even that their names be used in connection with office. Certain it is, however, that any of them would give good satisfaction. Any of the combinations mentioned ought to and will command the united support of the party, and there is no reason why such tickets should not be victorious in all the wards.

The City Ticket.

There are a number of names suggested for the city republican ticket. Two of the tickets proposed are substantially as follows:

Treasurer—James A. Fathers. Attorney—T. W. Goldin.

Street Commissioner—M. H. Curtis. School Commissioner—Herman Buchholz.

Justice—H. S. Sloan. Treasurer—Michael Murphy.

Attorney—B. F. Dunwiddie. Street Commissioner—George Hanthorn.

School Commissioner—F. S. Lawrence.

Justice—H. S. Sloan.

Other combinations were made by rostering the above names from one combination to the other, and by substituting the name of John Brown, or James T. Croft for street commissioner and the name of T. S. Nolan for attorney. With tickets composed of such men, republicans will drop all personalities or prejudices, and move forward to a sweeping victory.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not badness caused either by disease or by accident can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others cannot. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a cure of head or hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure a permanent personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results at no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

It is not the remedy for you at once, if he has not got it the stock.

HIGHWAYMEN AT ORFORDVILLE

They Attempt to Hold Up Charles Rossiter But Fail.

ORFORDVILLE, March 9.—Thugs jumped on C. H. Rossiter in the dark and but for his nerve and muscle they would have robbed him. The first thing Rossiter knew he was knocked down by a blow from behind. He jumped up and one of the thieves grabbed his watch and broke the chain in trying to take it out of his pocket. Rossiter knocked one of the thieves down and struck the other over the head with a steel frame parasol. They took to their heels and Rossiter got a light and found the watch lying on the ground. J. H. Berkley will talk prohibition Wednesday evening March 14. H. C. Taylor read a paper on "The Selection and Care of Dairy Cows" at the closing farmers institute held at Menominee. Gilman Peterson has finished the repairs on his store. Mrs. S. O. Onsgard is sick. J. F. Ennis is building an addition to his barn. Mrs. B. Helmbolt is gaining slightly, but Mrs. E. J. Shafer is now improving very rapidly.

OLD BARKER HOMESTEAD EMPTY

First Time in Fifty Years That No One Lives There—Other News.

BARBERS CORNERS, March 9.—The old stone house on Barker's Corners is empty for the first time in fifty years, Bert Barker having removed to Janesville. On account of the sickness of Mrs. John Flagler, the aid society was postponed until this week Thursday. Pomona grange meets Wednesday and Janesville grange Thursday at the Grange Hall. Grangers are beginning to appreciate their hall, since it cost the county over three hundred dollars to find out that it might remain on the land that it had a 99 years' lease of. Mrs. Georgia Cross has been elected superintendent of the Sunday school at the U. B. church. Mrs. Charles Abiet has been quite sick but is improving. School closed last week in the Paul district a week before time on account of vaccination. Mrs. James Caldwell is in Iowa, called there by the sickness of her father. Orville Brace is making improvements in the interior of his house.

Gossip From County Line

COUNTY LINE, March 9.—Miss Barbara Hofer's seventeenth birthday was marked by a very pleasant party at the residence of H. E. Utter last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Herrington have been entertaining friends from Albion and Lima. G. H. Roe has taken possession of his farm and L. W. Peacock will continue to occupy the house and work a part of his father's farm. Will Pollard has taken charge of the Knolls farm. Mrs. Salina Wilkins has left for home. Mark Pitt will be located on Mrs. Spaulding's farm, while Byron Brown's place will be run by Mr. Hyatt.

News From Johnston Center.

JOHNSTOWN CENTER, March 9.—P. J. Ward, of Janesville, has been visiting here. The night cap social at L. L. Nickerson's, was much enjoyed. Miss Mary McGowan spent her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McGowan. School is closed in District No. 11. Mrs. S. H. Johnson was over from Janesville on a visit last week. Many farmers are assorting tobacco, but few sales are made.

Brief Notes From Newark.

NEWARK, March 9, '94.—Willie Kelly received his diploma as a common school graduate when school closed last week. The social at Mr. Feece's was well attended, many being present from Beloit. Miss Nellie Barth is much better.

Milton Notes.

H. S. Saunders has gone to Grand Junction, Iowa, and may decide to buy a farm in that locality. Mrs. J. F. Florentine and Mrs. Bellway, of Wheaton, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Davy. Daniel Webster, of Canada, is visiting his father, N. M. Webster, and sister, Mrs. N. P. Palmer, of this village. A. P. Rice, wife and daughter, have gone to Albion, Mich., to visit relatives and friends.

FIVE FOOLISH FOLK.

"As soon as my trade picks up a bit," said the merchant, looking wise—"As soon as my trade picks up a bit, I am going to advertise."

"As soon as my vessel reaches port," said the skipper with a wail—"As soon as my vessel reaches port, I am going to set my sail."

"As soon as my field of grain is grown," said the farmer, sore in head—"As soon as my field of grain is grown, I am going to sow the seed."

"As soon as the man is well and strong," said the doctor, drawing close—"As soon as the man is well and strong, I will give him a curing dose."

Gentlemen:

A profitable inducement to you.

Would you invest one dollar if you were certain to receive two dollars in return?

Will not mix words about our offers, we need room for our spring stock, which is now arriving, several cases are here now. We're unable to make room unless we dispose of the bulk of our heavy weight stock. There's only one way to do this quickly and that is we've to give our stock of winter woollens away, without profit; we'll make them up with our usual good care at the actual cost of materials and workmanship. If you do not want any winter woollens, inspect our new stock of spring goods, equally as cheap.

We'll keep our tailors busy at any cost. Hardly any need quoting prices, you must see the goods to appreciate them.

Is it necessary to urge you to be prompt in your selection? The best styles always go first. "The early bird, &c."

THIS MAN LAUGHED AT DISEASE. Here is a strong, robust man who has never known a day's sickness in his life. He has always laughed at disease and made fun of medicine and doctors. "Why," he said the other day while talking with a fellow workman, "better wear thicker soled shoes, eh, or I will have catarrh." "Not much I am too tough to get anything." "Why I eat three square meals a day, sleep all night and get up in the morning feeling refreshed, and enjoy my breakfast before going to work. "No Sir; there's no danger of my getting catarrh or any other disease, I am too tough." This man little dreamed of the fate that was in store for him. When a man's strong and hearty he is more apt to be careless about himself. It is only when a man begins to go down hill that he realizes that he is not as tough and disease-proof as he thought he was. The men who often appear the strongest and most robust are often the weakest to go to pieces when disease strikes them and the quickest way to the cemetery is to get catarrh and neglect it. Neglected catarrh is the most frequent cause of consumption; and consumption kills 141,000 people in the United States every year.

Putting a Tax on Graves. The members of the Paris municipal council have little difficulty in meeting any deficit in their budget. They are threatened with one now, and consequently have resolved to put a fresh tax on funerals. Strictly speaking, of course, this will take the form of enhanced fees to be paid by the public, as there are no private undertakers in the French capital. According to the tariff which has been in vogue during the present regime, the price of a freehold grave, two square yards in size, is $70, but there is a progressive scale, so that a third yard costs $200 extra and the fourth the same amount again, while the fifth and sixth are charged $300 each, and every yard above a sixth costs no less than $400. The municipality propose to increase the price of the first two yards to $100, and to remodel the scale of charges in other ways, so that it is estimated there will be an increased revenue of $127,600 per annum.—London Tid-Bits.

Life or Death? It is of vital importance that it should be understood by persons whose kidneys are inactive that this condition of things is finally indicative of a state of the organs where life hangs in the balance. Bright's disease, diabetes, albuminuria are all diseases of a very obstinate character in their mature stages, and all have a fatal tendency. They often baffled the most practiced medical skill, and the most approved remedies of material medica. But opposed at the outset—that is to say, when the kidneys begin to discharge their function ineffectively, with Hostetter's stomach Bitters, the dangerous tendency is checked. Very useful, also, is this household medicine for those ailments of common occurrence, constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia and nervousness. It is a safeguard against malaria and averts chronic rheumatism.

STRONG CITY TICKETS

On another page The Gazette presents some of the names that are discussed by local republicans. With any of these men success should be assured. There has never been a time before in the history of the country when the duty of the republican party was more plain and imperative. It matters not what the local political conditions may be it is a time now when they should refuse all alliances, raise the banner of party and protection and go to the polls protesting by their voices and their votes against the policies of ruin that are being advocated by the free trade democracy. If there is any republican who has ever entertained doubts as to the correctness of his party's principles, they have surely been removed by the disastrous experiences of the past year. Through years of clamor against conditions and of promises of better things, some people were led to think that perhaps the protective policy was not for the general interest, and that an approach toward free trade would bring more prosperous times. They know better now. The experiment has been tried and it has proved fatal. The very threat of destroying protection has brought panic, bankruptcy, idleness and want. Every man and every interest has suffered from the blight of the business paralysis. The people in every section and in every industry have endured alarm, uncertainty and loss. Where there was hope there is fear, where there was profit there is loss, where there was work there is idleness. The depression is felt in the counting room, in the office and in the home.

The people have seen enough and to spare of the effects of democratic rule. They know now that it is to protection that they owe their past prosperity. They know that it is the prospect of free trade that has produced the present distress. They have before them an object lesson that cannot be misunderstood. They want a return to the happy days when improvements were going on, when business was profitable, when labor was busy and well paid. They know what the trouble is. They are ready to apply the only effective remedy.

Every voter who has suffered, and is there one who has not, by the terrible financial and industrial depression, should enter his protest at the very first opportunity, against a carrying out of the policy from which he has suffered. The place to protest is at the ballot box. Prosperity was voted out of the country, and it cannot be quickly voted back again.

Fred Kelsall Found Guilty.

MAQUOKETA, Iowa, March 10.—The jury in the Kelsall case returned a verdict of guilty, after being out all night. Fred Kelsall was accused of the crime of arson, being the leader of a gang of desperadoes who, it is said, have long committed acts of lawlessness at Canton, Iowa. The defense filed a motion for a new trial.

LICORICE HARVEST IN SYRIA. Gathered in Sacks and Carried on Camels to the Seaboard for Export.

In a series of articles describing the planting, cultivation, preparation for market and transplanting of licorice root, appearing in the Pharmaceutical Era, there is the following interesting descriptive bit: In digging licorice root in Syria the usual way is to start a trench the length of the place to be dug over, about two feet in length, and work from that, each man placing in a pile the root he has dug, and at the end of the day or longer time it is taken to the scales, weighed and paid for at a specified rate per pound. An allowance is always made for the dirt that clings to the roots. The root is then spread out for a few days to slightly dry, and piled in stacks about three feet wide and four or five feet high, rounded off at the top in order to shed rain, and the piles are narrow enough to prevent heating. At the end of the rainy season the root is spread out to dry for about two months, being turned over from time to time, during which process all the adhering earth dries and falls off, leaving it clean and ready for transport to the point of shipment. It is then put into cavaas sacks, each containing from 200 to 250 pounds, two sacks being a load for a camel or mule.

For the transportation of the root from the place where dug to the port of shipment, varying from two to five days' journey, a contract is usually made with some Arab or Bedouin sheik for a certain amount of cantars, of about 500 pounds each, at a certain price, he to furnish camels and men and the owner to furnish and fill the sacks. About fifty camels go in one caravan or drove, for which five men are sufficient. Sometimes, if 100 camels are used, the caravan goes in sections; one man riding a donkey leads the first camel and the rest follow the leader, while the other men walk, keeping any camel from straying or lagging too far behind. They usually start early in the morning and go ten or fifteen miles, when a halt is made, the loads are taken off and the camels are allowed to browse on the thorn or other bushes for three or four hours, then loaded again and about the same distance traveled, when they are again unloaded and the night is spent in the open air and an early start made the next morning. And so on until the seaboard is reached, where they are unloaded, the root is weighed, the sacks emptied and returned to be again refilled in the fields for another trip. On the Euphrates and Tigris the root is obtained near the banks of the rivers and, after being properly dried, is loaded on native boats called bungalows, carrying from fifty to 100 tons, which float down the river or sail if the wind is favorable, or at times are towed by men as far down as Bassorah, where the root is unloaded and pressed in bales ready for shipment.

CIGAR MEN FIGHT THE WILSON BILL.

JOHN SOULMAN TALKS OF THE NEW SCHEDULE.

Tariff on Sumatra Reduced, But the Internal Revenue Has Been Increased, Making the Expense to Manufacturers Greater Than Before—A Republican From This On.

"From this day on I am a republican," said John Soulman, the well-known cigar maker, this morning. "I voted for Cleveland, but the democrats have not kept faith with me. I will join the Young Men's Republican club next Tuesday night and I'll bring several others with me. The democrats last fall told us cigar manufacturers that they would put imported tobacco on the free list. Sumatra costs us $1.00 a pound and we had to pay $2.50 a pound duty. This made us pay $3.50 a pound for it. The democrats promised us that it should come free. That promise has not been fulfilled. They have reduced the duty but no change is made in the rates fixed by the Wilson bill on imported tobacco. The internal revenue section of the bill covers the income tax with many verbal but few essential changes; makes a tax of 2 cents on every pack of playing cards, similar to the provisions in the Wilson bill; a tax on all tobacco, cigars and cigarettes weighing over three pounds per thousand of $5 per thousand. Paper cigarettes weighing less than three pounds per thousand pay $1 per thousand, and those wrapped in tobacco 50 cents per thousand.

"You see they make us worse off than ever. The Sumatra costs less but the internal revenue stamps cost more than ever. No more democracy for me."

The time for the bill to go into effect, save in a few specific instances, is extended from June 1, 1894, to June 30, 1894. There will be more changes before the bill gets through the senate, and more when it gets into conference, but there is good reason to believe that the bill as it stands today will become a law without many important changes.

PASSED TO THEIR LAST ACCOUNT

Little Mary, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Boos, was summoned to the final home by the death angel last night, her demise occurring at the home of her parents at 11 o'clock. Little Mary had lived but two short months, but time for her to become a part of the life of the now sorrow-ridden parents. Many friends will extend their sympathy.

The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Funeral of James Hughes.

The funeral of James Hughes was held from St. Patrick's church at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Rev. Father Condon officiating. The pall bearers were Thomas Kiley, John Hart, Dennis Malady, William Croak, James Campion and Thomas Mackin.

Thanks To the Public.

Since the 7th day of February we have been conducting a great money-raising sale. It will close to-night at 11 o'clock. During this sale we have endeavored to treat everybody alike, and have at all times sold clothing just as advertised. It has not been our aim to incur the enmity of any concern or person, but some of our competitors have felt sore. This is wrong, as our sale was purely a business enterprise. During the sale thousands visited our store, and many new faces were seen here, people who have never visited us during the three years we have been in Janesville. We started out to raise $10,000. Thanks to the public we have raised it. We never advertise anything we cannot perform. We feel very grateful to a deserving people for the appreciation they have shown us during this sale. We will endeavor to treat you well in the future and will always give good values for your money. Watch this paper Monday evening for a new announcement. The past month has proven clearly to us that advertising pays and we propose to keep it up. See our spring announcement next Thursday. Yours,

ROSENFELD, The Originator.

Sunday Fair and Cooler.

Forecast: Tonight fair, Sunday probably fair and colder.

The temperature as recorded by S. C. Burnham & Co. during the last twenty-four hours was as follows:

Max. . . . 68 above
Min. . . . 39 above
Wind, south.

Read and Reflect.

On another page of this issue will be found an announcement of Dr. McChesney's. It fully explains itself and is very interesting. It will pay you to read it thoroughly as there is no doubt but it will apply in some way to your case. Catarrh is a dreaded disease and unless taken hold of in its early stages is sure to lead to bad results. Read the doctor's diagnosis of the case and see him at once, as relief awaits you at his hands.

Hello, Good People.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Last Night, and a General Disposition Shown To Take Hold with a Will—H. S. Sloan Made President of the New Organization.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of young republicans at Justice H. S. Sloan's office last night. They echoed the confidence that is felt by their party throughout the city and took steps for permanent organization. The Young Men's Republican Club will be the title and the following officers will serve.

President—H. S. Sloan.
Vice President—E. W. Putnam.
Treasurer—Frank Horning.
Secretary—J. C. Wilmarth.

It was decided to appoint committees in each ward, the chairman of the ward committees composing the executive committee of the main organization.

Steps will be taken to have the club in shape for active work during the coming campaign. An adjournment was ordered until next Thursday evening at 9:30 o'clock in Justice Sloan's office, when all the young republicans in the city are urged to be present.

DECORATIVE BURLAP.

Portieres, Screens, Etc., Fashioned From This Yellow Brown Material.

A short while ago it seemed that denim in blue, brown and bright red hues held first place on the list of decorative fancies for the house, but of late the tide has turned in favor of burlap, and this yellow brown material is now being worked up into every conceivable style. For example, there is the burlap por-

BURLAP FIRE SCREEN.

It is hung from the pole in long, straight folds, and one sees about the bottom of the prettiest a bold design in oils of tall reeds and grasses, a stork on the water's edge, or an odd, scroll-like pattern traced in dull browns and greens. Another very charming idea is the stretching of picture frames with burlap. In this way inexpensive as well as artistic settings for etchings and water colors are obtained. The foundation of wood is usually quite broad and flat. Over this the burlap is drawn, and if there is any one at hand to add a bit of coloring it is tinted in oils to harmonize with the picture. If not, it is left ungarnished, offering even in this state a pleasing departure from prosaic frames.

The natural coloring of a burlap covered couch and cushions is most restful to the eyes. Sometimes a large design is worked upon the pillows with coarse white embroidery thread, and tassels of the same are hung about the edges of the couch drapes.

After various unsuccessful attempts to hide from view the ugly gap produced by an unused fireplace, a ready witted housewife devised this unique scheme: Just inside the square opening she had snugly fitted a wooden frame. Over this she stretched burlap and painted upon it a sketchy outline of cat-o-nine-tails. About all four sides she secured a length of manilla rope, finishing each corner with a fringed tassel of the rope. When this novel screen was slipped into place, you can imagine how effective was the result, says Golden Days, which describes these uses of burlap.

Buttonhook Holder.

The following was originally described in The Household: Cut from paste-board two small boots, each measuring 4 inches from top to heel. Cover with suede kid (a castoff kid glove is nice if it be cleaned), being careful to let it form a sufficient lining at top. The side that has the buttons should be curved at the top. Across the toe and vamp embroider a line in outline stitch with the same shade of brown silk, and on one side in the same stitch embroider scallops and place a French knot in each scallop to imitate buttons. Overcast the two forms together all around, leaving the top of boot open. Hang it by a cord made of the silk. Place a buttonhook in the opening.

A Well Made Sandbag.

Do you know that a well made sandbag is often preferable to a hot water bag? The sand, however, should be fine and clean, the bag made of firm, strong cloth, double stitched and not filled so full as to be hard. Make an outer removable covering of soft flannel, shirred at the top by a strong tape sewed to position.

An Effective Cough Syrup.

This recipe for a cough syrup is going the rounds: An ounce thoroughwort, an ounce slippery elm bark, an ounce whole flaxseed. Boil in a quart of water, strain and add an ounce liquorice, a pint best molasses, one-half pound loaf sugar. Boil half an hour, bottle and take three or four doses daily.

Notes For Musicians.

It is well for a musician to interest himself in physical culture.

Much that passes for a dislike of practice and lack of musical taste in pupils is due to pianos being badly out of tune and repair.

Nothing is more confining than piano practice; nothing is more trying to the nerves; no one has greater need of outdoor exercise than the pianist.

It is an unfortunate teacher who has nothing but compliments for his pupils, but the teacher is also unfortunate who has nothing but severe criticism.

An almost universal cause of failure is the want of exactness in practice. In this matter teachers are at fault as well as pupils.

The pupil should, before beginning an exercise, etude or piece, stop and think out his ideal and how to best bring his work up to it in detail. There is altogether too much thoughtless and brainless practice.

Plows Drawn by Camels.

Oxen drawing plows is a sight familiar enough on Sussex downs, but camels employed in this way would be decidedly a novelty. The experiment, however, is being tried in Southern Russia, and, it is said, with remarkable success. Vice-Consul Smith states that the bad harvest of the last two years, together with the low prices of grain, having forced most agriculturists to look into the question of reducing expenses, and one great difficulty being to obtain animal power which would cost less for feeding than horses and yet be able to do the varying work of a farm, camels have been introduced upon an estate not far from Kieff. At present eighteen camels are at work, and their keep is found to cost much less than that of horses, owing to oats being dispensed with in their feeding. The price runs from $6 to $7 per head, inclusive of transport from the government of Orenburg to Kieff.—London News.

Improved.

While Dr. Lyman Beecher was at Lane seminary, an unusual number of cases of tardiness in chapel attendance occurred, and the blame was laid upon the chapel bell. Dr. Beecher waxed sarcastic over the frequent recurrence of this excuse, until one morning the students, assembled as usual, found the services unaccountably delayed. At last Dr. Beecher, in dressing-gown and slippers, with hair like the quills upon the 'fretful porcupine,' came jerkily down the aisle, mounted the platform, and delivered himself of the following explanation: "Didn't hear the old bell. Makes no more noise than a lamb's tail rung in a fur cap. Let us pray."

A Clever Ruse.

To get rid of a bore try the method pursued by a certain Harlem clubman. When accosted by one he shakes hands warmly with his persecutor, glances round anxiously and, dropping his voice, confidentially remarks:

"Say, I must be off! There's an awful bore here that I want to dodge—talk a fellow to death. You understand, old boy?"

The bore, with a wink,—I understand old fellow! (Departs without the remotest suspicion that he is the bore).

The Advertising Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is always within the bounds of reason because it is true; it always appeals to the sober common sense of thinking people because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which, in the financial world would be accepted without a moment's hesitation.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Agent, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

In Childhood's Happy Days.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. ## A Wonderful Remedy.

Dullam's German Medicine Co., Gentlemen, I have a pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such medicine as that to cleanse the stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, as others may try it and get cured.

Yours truly, Mrs. McDONALD, Midland, Mich.

A Whimsical Chap.

Once tried to quote Bulwer (was it Bulwer?) and said, "Great aches from little toe corns grow," and altho' he didn't exactly quote he got there, got there as it were, with both feet, at least with a part of both.

"To be or not to be," said Shakespeare, (or Bacon?) and he toe, may not be far off. Foot it over hill and dale, 'til you are weary and foot sore, and you cannot find such bargains as we offer in building sites. Homesites, for on these and the prices of the same and terms, too, we always did "go the mark." For some reason we are this spring getting onto the goods, the prices and the terms with both feet. And so, with Hamlet we soliloquize: "The wonder grows", why people are not "up in arms" when the prices we quote are looked into. You can get a home, if you wish, so long as we are in the business; hard times don't count. If you are not earning so much money as you did last year, we will meet you; it don't matter.

Homesites and Homes are our fad; to help people get 'em is what we are on earth for, this time.

The main secret, we suppose, why we always get the major part of the real estate trade going, is that we own a large part of the property that we offer. Another part of the secret is, we deal every time so that our customer sends to us his or her friend when they want to deal.

Our beginnings here were not large, but so true it is that "Great oaks from little acorns grow," that the "birds of the air" have their homes,—build their nests,—in the result of our grain of mustard seed. Come over and roost with us. Yours very truly,

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

THE C. S. GRAVES LAND COMPANY,

Farming and Grazing Land,

IN CENTRAL WISCONSIN,

Clark : County.

25,000 Acres of Good Farming Land For Sale.

Short Description of this Farming Land Which is now for the First Time Open to Settlers and at Prices Which are Within the Reach of All.

The land now offered for sale lies within four to ten miles of the county seat, and adjoining the new town of Columbia which is located on the Northwestern line at the Junction of Fall river, or Wedges creek, and the C., St. P., M. & O. Ry., only seven miles from the county seat.

THIS LAND lies on a beautiful plateau sloping gently to the South and East, it is well watered by creeks fed from springs of soft water. The land is free from stones save along the river, and there sufficient supplies for building purposes are found. The clay will make beautiful red brick suitable for all building purposes.

THE SOIL

is a sandy loam, deep and rich with a clay subsoil. Corn, potatoes, sugar beets and a variety of grasses, such as clover, timothy and redtop, have an abundant yield. Mr. H. D. Lockman, a farmer living on land adjoining Columbia took first prize on corn, potatoes and vegetables, at the Clark county fair this fall (1893) which speaks for itself as to the quality of the soil, when lands in other portions of this county are held from $50.00 to $100.00 per acre.

GOOD WATER

can be found at a depth of from twelve to thirty feet and the supply is abundant.

THE CLIMATE

is all that could be desired. The air is pure and healthful, free from miasma or any disease breeding influences.

ROADS

will follow section lines will be free from heavy grades and deep mud.

SETTLERS

on surrounding lands are principally Americans, Scandinavians and Germans. The whole county is dotted with farms, the thrift and welfare of whose owners cannot be doubted, and perfect that few are willing to sell their farms speaks well for the prosperity of the country. In addition to

Right In It Again.

THE END HAS COME.

AT THE STROKE OF THE BELL TONIGHT AT 11 O'CLOCK THE

GREATEST CLOTHING SALE

EVER ATTEMPTED IN JANESVILLE WILL CLOSE.

We have told you about this from day to day, and if you failed to take advantage of it we can't help it. You have had ample opportunity.

~~~~~COME TONIGHT.~~~~~

During this great sale, which began February 7, we have endeavored to do just as we advertised. We have endeavored to treat every one alike. Hundreds and hundreds of people, yes thousands of them have visited our store. Many and many a face has been seen in our store, that was never here before. During our three years' experience in Janesville, we have not seen as many new faces as we have seen the last month. We have during this great sale made our competitors to "feel sore," but we have committed no wrong against them, we meant business. Their soreness is the result of no business. They tried to down us, but "but we would not down."

WE HAVE DONE AS WE AGREED.

AND HAVE NO REGRETS.

A few more hundred dollars and the $10,000 will be raised. We want the people all to remember this,

~~~~~WHEN WE MAKE A STATEMENT~~~~~

WE DO AS WE SAY.

=====RIGHT NOW WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF THE===== Greatest Clothing Business Ever Known In Janesville.

We engaged extra help for today but did not get enough.

The Closing Hours of this Great Sale are the most Gratifying

one could wish for. Those who have not made their selections, but signified their intention to do so, had better come this evening before 11 o'clock as then we will positively close and your opportunity will be gone.

WE WILL NOT NAME ANY SPECIAL PRICES FOR TODAY.

Everything <sup>in the house</sup> 40 Cents on the Dollar.

The Best Bargains are yet on hand. Workingmen take advantage. Your last Opportunity.

=====WISHING YOU ALL A FUTURE FILLED WITH SUCCESS=====
